

3rd Conference of Young Koreanists

Date: 3.3. 2017

Venue: Zelená posluchárna, Celetná 20

9.00 Opening

9.10-10.30 Pre-modern History/Chair: Miriam Löwensteinová

Markéta Vojtíšková Who Was a Rebel in Early Koryŏ period? A Study on Biographies in the Chronicle Koryŏsa, 918–1170

Blanka Kašparová: Perception of Japan and the Japanese in Sŏ Chae-p'il's work: Focused on selected events of the late 19th century

Kateřina Kocinová: The beginning of modern postal services in late Joseon and its development throughout the enlightenment period

11.00-12.30 Culture and Society/ Chair: Vladislava Mazaná

Christian Lewarth: The Kŏmun'go as an instrument of the 21st century

Aneta Pavlíčková: Nice but naughty. Mukbang – desire and „satisfaction” performed by online eating shows

Ramóna Kovács: Freedom of Goryeo women?

Tereza Boukalová: Yŏgong Undong: Factory girls' movement in 1980's

Lunch

14.00-15.30 Interpretation of History/Chair: Blanka Ferklová

Karolína Šamánková: Interpretations of Influences and Significance of Tonghak Peasant Movement and its Comparison in South Korean History Textbooks from 20th and 21st Century

Marie Klepetková: Orthodox church in Korean society

Adéla Andrýsková: Question of foundation and existence Chongryun in Japan

Matěj Valošek: Keyword valence in Czech ideological texts of 50s. Korean war in eyes of ideology

16.00 – 17.00 Round table discussion